

Learn about...Easy Read

It is important for everyone to be able to understand all the information they need.

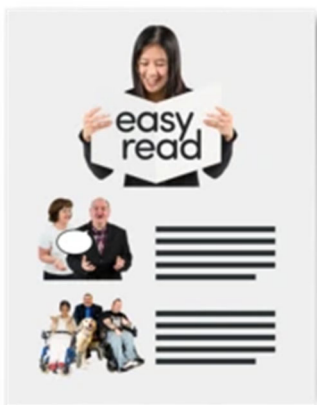

A light blue form titled "Please fill in this easy read form". It has three sections: "Your name" with a small icon of a person, "Address" with a small icon of a house, and "Phone" with a small icon of a mobile phone.

Sometimes in different languages, braille for blind people or Easy Read.

Easy Read makes it easier for people to get information.

It helps them make decisions about their life.

Easy Read makes the words simple and it has pictures.

Easy Read can help a lot of people. It can help many people with a learning disability.

Easy Read is a short version of a document.

Easy Read can help some people with a learning disability a lot, or just a bit. It depends who is reading it.

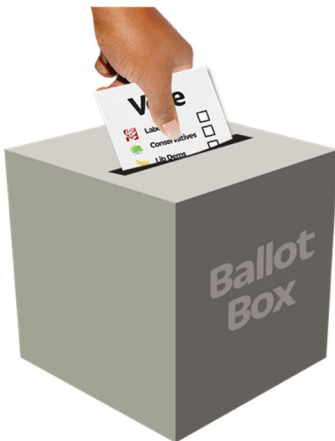

It is good to get Easy Read checked by a person who has a learning disability.

It is good to check if the person can understand the Easy Read document.

Estelle who makes Easy Read documents says she likes supporting people.

She likes to help everyone understand all information.

She thinks it is important for things like voting in elections.

If you have questions, ask
Global Connects for help.

Pictures by Photosymbols